doing the cutting act, the butchering act, the cutting off of those...of all the amounts that are above 100 percent on the chart that you originally received, which means that we're taking from the districts that are able to fully recoup the monies they would otherwise have had under the old system and those who would be "doing better" under that...under that comparison and being sure that they do no better than making themselves whole. And we're taking that money for three years and redistributing it, and when the time comes we'll have a discussion of the allocation system that is being proposed. But I hope it's understood that this is just part one of a two-part concept. Thank you.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Senator Chris Peterson.

SENATOR C. PETERSON: Mr. Speaker, members of the Legislature. If I could ask Senator Bohlke some questions.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Senator Bohlke, are you present to respond? I'm sorry, Senator, I...

SENATOR C. PETERSON: That makes...

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: ...do not see her. Here she comes. Senator Bohlke, would you respond to a question from Senator Chris Peterson?

SENATOR BOHLKE: Yes.

SENATOR C. PETERSON: The handout that I just picked up has the comparison includes the lop-off adjustment. If you...you made a comment that if I...we would look at the last page.

SENATOR BOHLKE: Yes.

SENATOR C. PETERSON: Okay.

SENATOR BOHLKE: And go the the column that says "lop-off adjustment", one, two.
